

Kidnaping Case Lid By FBI

Police Not Let In On Activity Of Investigation

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The FBI dispatched a dozen men to the San Fernando Valley north of Hollywood during the night, arousing speculation that agents might be on the trail of suspects in the Frank Sinatra Jr. kidnaping case.

The FBI acknowledged it had men in the area but wouldn't say what they were doing.

Newsmen learned through police that several residents of the area telephoned the West Valley Police Station, saying men believed to be FBI agents were checking houses on one street and stopping cars at intersections in the same neighborhood.

Officer Gene Radomski of the West Valley division of the Los Angeles police department said it was "strictly an FBI operation." He said police hadn't been told the nature of the FBI activity but assumed it was connected with the Sinatra case.

Wednesday, after Sinatra Jr. was returned to his family for $240,000 ransom, Los Angeles Police Chief William H. Parker complained his department was left completely in the dark on developments in the case.

"This is the first time in my memory that we have been faced with probable criminal activity in the city of Los Angeles and have been unable to (respond)," Parker said at a news conference. "We have always worked as a team with law enforcement agencies."

Parker said he didn't want to interfere with the FBI. "I'm sure they had adequate reason for not bringing us in," he said. "I am just pointing out our position. I am concerned with the criticism we may ultimately receive in a case which we have been deprived of any opportunity to solve."

Sinatra Jr., a slender 19-year-old who has followed his father's footsteps by undertaking a singing career, was abducted by two armed men Sunday night from his motel room at a Lake Tahoe resort on the California-Nevada border. He had a singing engagement at a casino there.

Church Effort In Release Of Captives

ORURO, Bolivia (AP) — Catholic Church leaders were reported today trying to secure the release of a group of hostages, including four Americans, held by Communist-led tin miners.

A standoff prevailed between government troops and armed miners in the Catavi area where the hostages were held as pawns for two Communist union leaders arrested by President Victor Paz Estenssoro's government. The government still insisted it would not trade the arrested men for the hostages.

Mrs. Andrew Kennedy of St. Louis, Mo., a member of the staff of the Catholic vicar general in La Paz, arrived in Oruro en route to Catavi, 30 miles away.

Informed sources said Msgr. Kennedy had been in contact with representatives of the miners' union and the miners were willing to have him mediate the dispute.

The priest was also said to be carrying a letter to the miners from the two jailed union leaders, Irineo Pimentel and Federico Escobar. Both have been indicted on charges of sabotaging government mine operations, attempted murder and promoting anarchy.

There was no word of any direct negotiations between the government and the miners for release of the hostages. But tension in the area eased somewhat after a Defense Ministry statement said troops would not move against the defiant miners and President Paz Estenssoro ordered army patrols withdrawn from Catavi.

Vote New Appeal For Free Korea

757 Jobless Pay Claims In November

Initial jobless pay claims, often an index to new unemployment, totaled 757 during November in the four county area (Pettis, Johnson, Morgan and Benton) served by the Sedalia employment office; up 38 per cent compared to October 1963 and up 31 per cent compared to November 1962.

The increase of new unemployment is due primarily to curtailment in manufacturing in Morgan and Johnson Counties of a temporary nature and completion of several projects in construction industry, officials said.

Weekly claims totaled 2,000 during this same period, up 24.6 per cent compared to October 1963 and up 23.8 per cent compared to November 1962. Benefits paid totaled $33,233.17 during November 1963 compared to $32,389.06 during October 1963 and $37,371.11 during November 1962.

A total of 78 determinations were issued in November on claims made by individuals who either voluntarily quit or were discharged from their jobs, a decrease of one per cent compared to October.

New entrants into labor market filing applications totaled 272, a decrease of 23.6 per cent compared to October. Non-agricultural job openings declined 19 per cent and placements declined 41 per cent. Farm job openings and placements also declined considerably during November.

Says Kaysinger Dam Funds Cut From Public Works Bill

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Star says that funds to begin the $142 million Kaysinger Bluff reservoir in west central Missouri has been deleted from the public works appropriation bill.

The Star said in a story from Washington it had learned that House members in a conference committee had knocked out the $350,000 the Senate approved last Monday for starting the project.

The House bill provided $650,000 for planning and $1 million for relocation of state highways in the area.

Also deleted, the Star said, were extra funds the Senate had provided for the Almena project, a reclamation unit near Norton, Kan. The conferees stayed with the House figure of $3,983,000. The additional funds were for an irrigation project.

Sedalia Man Injured In Accident That Kills Illinois Woman

CONCORDIA, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Franklin Henry Coats, 62, of Versailles, Ill., was killed Wednesday when a car driven by her husband went out of control on an icy stretch of U. S. 40 and collided with another car.

Coats and the other driver, Willie C. Watring, 51, of Sedalia, Mo., were not severely hurt. They were admitted to a hospital at Sweet Springs, Mo.

The wreck was half a mile east of the intersection of U. S. 40 and Missouri 23 at the north edge of Concordia.

JFK Book Response Is 'Tremendous'

There has been an unprecedented response to the offer of "The Torch Is Passed."

Publication of this lavishly illustrated, dramatic, historic book — a permanent record on the assassination of President Kennedy — was announced by The Associated Press only last week. Already nearly 500 AP member papers, including this one, have decided to participate. Indications from reader reaction to date are that the press run may approach a million.

Four top writers of The Associated Press, led by Paul Pettit, all of whom had a hand in reporting or backgrounding the big story when it happened — are now completing the 35,000-word text. It is described by those who have read it as the most engrossing, complete and cohesive account yet of the four days that shook the world. It includes heretofore unpublished information.

Step by step, and day by day, it details President Kennedy's tragic journey from the White House to Texas and back to Arlington.

The large, hard cover book will include more than 100 pictures, in color and black and white, in its 100 pages.

It is scheduled for delivery early in January. We suggest you send in $2 now for your copy. It will not be sold in book stores at any time.

A coupon for ordering the book appears on an inside page.

Johnson Supports Culture Center Idea

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson gave his formal support Wednesday to naming a proposed national cultural center in Washington for the late President John F. Kennedy and financing half the cost with federal money.

Identifying Tax Number Now Needed

Taxpayers were reminded today by Kansas City Acting District Director, Maurice E. Johnson, that under the law they were required to enter their identifying "tax account" numbers on 1963 Income Tax returns filed in 1964.

For the individual, this is his Social Security number, or similar number issued for tax reporting purposes if he has never had employment under Social Security coverage.

Use of identifying numbers is essential to electronic processing of returns, now being installed nationwide by Internal Revenue, Mr. Johnson said. He added that failure to show account number may delay any refund due.

Taxpayers still needing an account number should apply at once to the District Director's Office, or to the District Office of the Social Security Administration.

Johnson pointed out also that payers of dividends and interest are required to obtain the account numbers of their shareholders and depositors and to use them on information documents submitted to Internal Revenue.

He said receivers of income from these sources should comply promptly when they get requests for their account numbers from the paying organization. This also is required by law, he said.

Cambodia Recalls Its US Envoy

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodian chief of state, said today Cambodia has recalled its ambassador to Washington following a protest registered by the U.S. government.

The protest concerned a reported communique of the Cambodian government which the United States charged expressed satisfaction at the death of President Kennedy, along with the deaths of South Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem and Thailand Premier Sarit Thanarat. The Cambodian government denied any reference had been made to President Kennedy.

The State Department in Washington declined immediate comment on the situation. It was known, however, that a broadcast of the government statement in question produced shock when U.S. monitors first heard it. An immediate inquiry was launched.

33 Military Bases Get Ax In Reduced Spending Move

6 Homes Slid Into 'Mud Sea'

4 Brothers Die In Landslide; Homes Disappear

ST. JOACHIM DE TOUR-ELLE, Que. (AP) — A second earth movement today sent two houses tumbling into a sea of mud which swallowed up four brothers in a truck and three other houses Wednesday night. The first earth movement also demolished a highway bridge and carried four homes into the St. Lawrence River.

Quebec provincial police, working throughout the night to help the stricken and alarmed Gaspé Peninsula community, ordered 10 houses evacuated.

Except for the brothers, no other deaths were reported in the sudden earth shift in this small Gaspé Peninsula community 275 miles northeast of Quebec. But the situation was so confused that officials said there may have been more fatalities.

A pit 150 feet deep and a half square mile in area was opened in the Tourelle Creek Valley 500 to 1,000 feet above the Gaspé Highway.

Quebec provincial police said a car also was swallowed up by the earth movement but that its occupants — a couple — were pulled out of the mud by rope. The truck carrying the brothers vanished. They were identified as Johnny Therrien, 32, and his brothers, Raymond, 28, Benoit, 22, and Onesime, 20.

Constable Martin Gauthier said fishermen in three boats rescued at least six persons from the houses swept into the river. No other occupants were believed lost.

The disaster came at 5:30 p.m. with a trembling of the earth.

New Storm Headed For Missouri

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Missouri isn't getting any relief from the wintry weather.

Packed snow and ice still covers many highways and the weatherman says another big storm is headed for the state.

A blizzard warning was put out for the extreme northwest corner and a glaze warning for the west central.

A mass of Arctic air is headed down the east side of the Rockies and some moist air is moving up from the Gulf. This combination is expected to bring blizzard conditions to the northwest corner of the state late tonight with northerly winds of 35 to 55 miles an hour.

This storm is expected to spread over the entire northwest area of the state Friday. In the rest of the state there will be strong northerly winds, light snow or snow flurries and some freezing rain in the Bootheel. It also will continue cold with the lows tonight around 20 in the northwest and from 10 to 15 in the east and south. Highs Friday will be in the 15-25 range.

Mayor L. L. Studer said today he has the assurance that District Engineer Klamm and Assistant Luebbert of the State Highway Commission, will meet with members of City Council and traffic advisory committee at 7:30 p.m. in an open council meeting Monday.

Studer stated that the City administration is hopeful that the installation of the traffic control signal for 16th and Limit Street, and the proposed revision of speed limits on Routes 50 and 65 highways through Sedalia will be resolved at this meeting and in the best interests of the community and the State Highway Commission.

The Weather

David G. Nes To Viet Nam Post Two

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is sending career diplomat David G. Nes to South Viet Nam to serve as the key No. 2 man under Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

Authoritative sources said today Johnson personally approved the selection of the 46-year-old Foreign Service officer who has a distinguished World War II combat record. Nes replaces William C. Trueheart, whose two-year tour of duty expired last October.

The appointment comes at a time when Lodge's name is figuring in speculation about the 1964 Republican presidential nomination. But he has stated he is not a candidate and does not intend to run.

Lodge, the 1960 GOP vice presidential candidate on the ticket headed by Richard M. Nixon, was named to the Saigon post last summer by the late President John F. Kennedy.

Nes, born in York, Pa., is a Princeton graduate and took a master's degree at Harvard. He was a company commander in the famed Merrill's Marauders, who fought a guerrilla war against the Japanese in Burma during World War II.

Nes joined the Foreign Service in 1936. He has served in posts from Glasgow and Paris to Tripoli and Rabat, Morocco.

Traffic Chips Away at Snow On Highways

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Traffic today began chipping away at an accumulation of snow and ice on Missouri's highways.

But the state Highway Department's morning road condition report still showed long stretches of hazardous highways. The worst driving conditions included these sections:

U. S. 24—Partly covered with snow and ice from Kansas City to Buckner, snow or ice covered from Buckner to Illinois line.

U. S. 36—Mostly covered with snow and ice from St. Joseph to Clarence and from there to Hannibal snow covered.

27 Are In United States And Seven Are Overseas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara announced today that, in an economy action, he had ordered 26 military bases in the United States and 7 bases overseas to be closed or substantially reduced.

McNamara told a news conference, "I have every reason to believe that studies now underway will lead to further reductions in the coming months."

The defense secretary said that, when the 33 bases are closed or reduced over a period of up to 3½ years, he expects annual savings of $106 million.

The move will cut off 8,600 civilian jobs and result in a reduction of about 7,800 military personnel, McNamara said.

Every civilian employee whose job is eliminated will be offered another job opportunity, McNamara promised.

To achieve the 8,500 reduction while offering new jobs to the dispossessed, McNamara said there will be a freeze on hiring at certain other installations, as well as normal attrition.

The 26 domestic bases to be closed or reduced are located in 14 states, and the 7 overseas bases are in three foreign countries.

Included are 14 Army installations, 12 Air Force, and 7 Navy.

The hardest hit state was New York, which will lose 7 bases. California loses 4 bases, and Texas, President Johnson's home state, Louisiana and Alabama each lose 2.

Arizona, Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Mississippi, Nevada, New Hampshire, North Carolina and Ohio also are affected, with one base each.

New Budgets Look Ordered By Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has directed all federal departments and agencies to take another look at their budgets to determine what cuts can be made for the fiscal year starting July 1.

This was disclosed today by press secretary Pierre Salinger. Salinger said Johnson directed that reports on possible cuts be made to Budget Director Kermit Gordon by 6 p.m. Friday.

Salinger repeated earlier statements that Johnson hopes to keep the budget somewhere between $90 and $103 billion.

All departments and agency heads were directed to re-examine the appropriations, expenditures and employment figures contained in their tentative proposals for the new fiscal year. In addition, they were told to specify possible further cuts in appropriations and personnel, along with steps that might be taken to tighten up management policies to save money.

Construction Permit For FM Station Okayed for KSIS

The Federal Communications Commission has approved a construction permit for an FM radio station for Sedalia, to be built by the Yates Broadcasting Company.

The new FM facility is to be an integral part of radio station KSIS AM, however, programming will be separate from the AM facility. A spokesman for the Yates firm said the FM programming would begin perhaps at 6 a.m., and continue until possibly 11 p.m.

The FM facility will operate on a frequency of 92.1 megacycles at 2,600 watts power. The transmitter and studios will be at the present KSIS station.

General manager Carl Yates said construction will begin immediately, with a target date of April 1 for the first broadcast. The antenna will be installed on top of the AM antenna, with a separate control room and transmitter to be installed.

It was explained that the FCC action Wednesday is only for the construction phase of development. After the construction is completed, it will be inspected by FCC officials and approved before the broadcasting license is issued.

Shots Fired At Officers During Chase

2 Negro Youths Elude Policemen Near MoPac Tracks

Two young Negro boys fired a total of four pistol shots at pursuing police officers early Thursday morning and then escaped after leading policemen on a brisk foot chase in the downtown West Main Street vicinity.

Police said Patrolmen Albert Blankenship and Donald Shipp were driving east on Main Street in patrol car No. 7 at 12:37 a.m. when the Negro youths dashed south across Main at Main and Montauk.

The officers set out in pursuit and chased the subjects to the alley where they ran east down the alley to the rear of the Harvey Brothers Implement Company, 305 West Main.

As the Negroes ran through the implement company yard, one turned and fired a pistol at the policemen.

The youths then ran across Main Street, north on Montauk and west on the tracks with the officers still in pursuit. Another shot was fired at the policemen on the railroad tracks.

The pair ran west on the tracks to Missouri Avenue and then north on Missouri to in front of the Town and Country Shoe Company where they paused and fired two more shots.

New Cabinet Formed In South Korea

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — President-elect Chung Hee Park formed a new Cabinet today, apparently designed to strengthen ties with the United States and other Western Allies.

Named as premier is Dr. Choi Doo-sun, 69, Western-educated former newspaper publisher known for his diplomatic talent.

For 16 years Choi was publisher of the largest-circulation newspaper in South Korea, the outspoken daily Donga Ilbo, until he became president of the Korean Red Cross last August.

He once served as a member of the Korean observer delegation to the United Nations and as a member of a goodwill mission to Japan and the United States.

To assist him in the diplomatic field, Park named Chung Ilkwon as foreign minister and Kim Yong-shik, present foreign minister, as minister without portfolio in charge of foreign affairs. Chung was twice ambassador to Washington — once under former Premier Huh Chung's caretaker government in 1960, and later under the present military regime.

The new Cabinet will take office Tuesday with the inauguration of Park, ending the military regime. Park led the junta that toppled the elected government in 1961. He retired from the army last summer and was elected to the presidency.

ESCONDIDO, Calif. (AP) — The head of the Strategic Air Command, Gen. Thomas S. Power, says he will retire next year.

Ann Landers Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Our very handsome son is going to marry a nice girl who was crippled in an accident during childhood. The girl is not noticeably deformed but she has a bad limp. This does not seem to matter to my son.

The girl's mother is making arrangements for a church wedding and it appears that they plan to go all out. Since the girl has a bad limp, don't you feel it would be better taste if they had a modified ceremony and not the traditional one where the bride walks down the aisle on her father's arm? She could come from the side of the pulpit and be spared public display of her handicap.

My husband says he doesn't want to get involved in this. Do you feel I should mention it to my son, to the girl or to her mother? They are accustomed to the girl's limp so naturally they do not see it as others do. A word from someone objective, such as myself, seems in order. Please advise.—MOTHER OF THE GROOM.

Dear Mother: Keep quiet and let the bride and her mother make whatever wedding plans they wish. The girl deserves a great deal of credit for adjusting to her problem. In my opinion you are more handicapped than she is.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a secretary to a wealthy, prominent business man. My workload is tremendous, but because I'm a conscientious person I manage to keep current by coming in early and working late.

The problem is the boss's wife. She waltzes in three or four times a week and says, "Write a letter to so-and-so," and then she begins to dictate. Some

Another Five Years For Prison Romeo

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Hernando Campbell Cotton Jr., 55, who once found love at the Kansas Penitentiary, was sentenced Wednesday to five years in a federal prison Wednesday for forgery.

Cotton pleaded guilty to forgery of a government check.

In 1956 he found romance in a tunnel connecting the state prison's power plant with the Kansas Women's Industrial Farm. It came to light after the woman became pregnant and the couple escaped.

Cotton has served terms in Oklahoma and the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., in addition to the Kansas penitentiary.

days I spend two hours on her social and organizational letter-writing. By rights this woman should hire a private secretary.

My boss has a partner who also has a wife, but she never comes near the office nor would she dream of taking advantage of his secretary this way.

What should I do? Complain to the boss? Complain to the boss partner? Or quit? I love my job but this woman is too much for me.—BURNED UP.

Dear Burned Up: You can always quit—and you may well be invited to do just that after you complain to the boss, which, in my opinion, is the wise thing to do.

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from "Pixie Face," the girl who wanted to know how to get rid of a nicey-nice boy friend who wouldn't give up, reminded me of myself a year ago. I hope she knows what she is doing. I didn't—and I'll regret it to my dying day.

I was dating a marvelous guy I'll call Jack. He was a perfect gentleman, treated me beautifully and was as kind and considerate as a guy could be. Somehow another fellow got into the act. I will call him Phil. He was good-looking, had loads of sex appeal and I was flattered by his attention.

I began to give Jack the cold treatment—broke dates on him at the last minute when Phil called me and I was just plain rotten to him.

After a while Jack stopped calling. Well, Phil turned out to be a real louse—selfish, mean and interested in only one thing. Jack started to date another girl and I just heard that they plan to announce their engagement soon. I realize now what a swell guy I lost and I could kick myself with a heavy combat boot.—HEARTACHE.

Dear Heartache: One of the good things about a rough experience is that sometimes we learn from it. I suspect you've learned plenty—and that's good.

Vocational Training Seen As Solution

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The problem of Negro unemployment must be solved by vocational training, not legislation, says an aircraft executive from Wichita.

Cliff Titus, director for management development and community relations of Beech Aircraft Corp., told the Advertising and Sales Club Wednesday:

"There are enough jobs, but not enough of the kind that can be done by the people seeking them. We are advertising for workers daily at $1.50 to $4 an hour. We've got to have them. There are jobs to be done.

"But when I get back to my office, it will probably be jammed with men asking for work, and the reply of the majority when asked what they can do, is generally, nothing."

Of Negro unemployment, Titus said:

"How are we handling it? We are saying you've got to put so many in your industry, put them to work. What are we doing? Hiring a man because he is black? In my opinion, it is just

Perjury Charge On President Of Katz Chain

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A Federal grand jury charged Wednesday that Morris R. Schlensky, president of the Katz Drug Co., lied about payoffs to officials of the Teamsters Union.

The jury indicted Schlensky, 60, on a charge of perjury. He was to be arraigned today before a U.S. commissioner.

The jury said Schlensky made payoffs to Floyd R. Hayes, Stanley Clevenger and Robert LeRoy Williams, former Teamster officials, but denied it in testimony before the jury last May 28.

Schlensky said he was shocked and amazed by the indictment. "I did testify and I did tell the truth," he said Wednesday night.

A government attorney said the reasons for the alleged payoffs would be a matter of trial evidence but he could not discuss them now because they were not cited in the indictment.

Hayes and Clevenger were convicted and Williams pleaded guilty to charges of conspiracy to embezzle union funds.

Schlensky, a 1924 graduate of Purdue University, joined Katz in 1935. He was named general manager in 1946 and president in 1960.

Katz operates 35 stores in Kansas City, St. Louis, Des Moines, Memphis, Springfield, Mo., St. Joseph, Mo., and Topeka, Kan.

FISHERMAN INLET BRIDGE

A Highway Goes to Sea

Early in 1964, the first vehicle will begin a 17.6 mile trip across Chesapeake Bay on a spectacular system of stilted highway, trestles, bridges, tunnels and man-made islands stretching from Wise Point, Va., to Chesapeake Beach, Va., 15 miles from Norfolk. The $200 million crossing will close the last link on the 998-mile Ocean Hiway between New York and Florida.

Sketch below shows the profile of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel, which at some points is out of sight of land.

Skunk Not His Pet

ASHLAND, Ore. (AP)—Steve Barnett, an Ashland high school student, lost his pet deodorized skunk several weeks ago.

This week a neighbor called him and said the animal was in her yard. Steve went to bring his pet home and discovered too late it was not his skunk.

Quintuplets May Be Home Christmas

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP)—The Fischer quintuplets, three months old next Saturday, probably will all be home for Christmas.

Arrangements are being made for two of the four girls to go home Saturday noon. James Andrew, the only boy, went home Nov. 30. The other girls should go home soon, too.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fischer, are acquiring more domestic help for their rented home in northeast Aberdeen.

James Andrew went home when he weighed 10 pounds, 5 ounces. He has been described by the family as "a very good baby." Fischer has said there have been no problems at the Fischer home since the boy left St. Luke's Hospital.

The Fischers have five older children, so if the girls make it home by Christmas it should be a lively holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fischer recently picked out $100 in toys donated by a chain store.

The four girls, still in the hospital nursery, are growing. Latest hospital reports list Mary Ann's weight at 6 pounds, 13 ounces; Mary Magdalene 8-5; Mary Catherine 7-13 and Mary Margaret 8-1.

All are reported doing fine. The quints' father has returned to his job as a shipping clerk in a wholesale grocery warehouse here and at the same pay.

A financial windfall came from the sale of rights to exclusive stories and pictures.

Mary Ann Fischer, the quints' mother, is picking up the family routine. Her mother, Mrs. Elmer Brady of Hecla, S.D., is helping her.

A new home promised by the city of Aberdeen is still in the planning stage.

Bob Kennedy Gets Back To Public Life

WASHINGTON (AP)—Slowly and quietly, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is easing back into the public life that was so shattering altered by an assassin's bullet three weeks ago. He still is the attorney general, the nation's top law enforcement officer, even though he no longer holds the intimate White House role he delighted in when his brother, John F. Kennedy, was president.

He attended a groundbreaking ceremony Wednesday — his first official public appearance since his brother's funeral. He didn't say anything. He just stood and watched. The playground is in the heart of the city, and he frequently has shown concern for the city's underprivileged children.

He has made no public statement of his plans. He has permitted no news interviews.

But the general understanding continues to be that the 38-year-old attorney general will remain on the job as long as President Johnson wants him to.

"I'm not worried about Bob one bit," one close friend said. "I'm convinced he'll always be in public life—and that he will get along just as fine on his own as when he was part of that brother team. But as far as I know, he's kept his own counsel about his plans."

On chance meetings in the hallway, his characteristic "How are you" in the flat Boston accent sounds the way it used to. The rather shy smile still is there. A few days in Florida and a full week back on the job seem to have restored him to typical excellent physical condition.

He attended a Cabinet meeting at the White House Wednesday.

Burglar Gets Away In Police Wagon

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—While Patrolmen James Curley and James Harkins were looking for a burglar in a pharmacy, the burglar was apparently outside looking for transportation.

He found it — Curley's and Harkins' patrol wagon. He used a wire to work the ignition and drove away while the policemen were inside looking for the cause of a jangling burglar alarm.

Police found the missing wagon several hours later Wednesday.

Fossils Are Stolen

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Nine fossils of sea lilies up to 450 million years old have been reported stolen from Syracuse University's geology department.

Police said Wednesday the fossils probably were taken sometime last weekend.

Buyer, Seller Both Hooked In Transaction

ABERAVON, Wales (AP)—Aberavon lacks a Brooklyn Bridge but has an abandoned railroad station. David Thomas, 34, sold it to David Roberts, 36, for $84.

Roberts, a scrap dealer, paid with a bad check. Thomas was hauled into court Wednesday on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses.

He was found innocent. The magistrates decided he genuinely believed he had bought the station legally from a chance acquaintance for $14.

Police said no action will be taken against Roberts for the bad check because he wasn't buying anything anyway.

Much Interest In Johnson's Home Sale

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—There are a lot of people who want to buy President Lyndon Johnson's Washington home, "The Elms," attorney A. W. Moursund said Wednesday.

"I haven't even been able to get together an asking price but I am getting a whole bunch of calls from people wanting to buy," Moursund said.

Moursund, a close friend and business associate of the President, said Johnson had asked him to handle the sale of the house in exclusive Spring Valley section of northwest Washington.

Moursund was asked if the price might be around $200,000, a figure used in some reports as the estimated cost in 1961.

"I'd think it would be more than that," he said, "because the Johnsons paid more than that for it. Then they added some things after they bought it. But I just can't tell now what the price would be."

ACLU Meet Attended By Lee Oswald

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Lee Harvey Oswald, President Kennedy's accused assassin, attended a meeting of the American Civil Liberties Union less than a month before the president was shot, a Dallas lawyer said Wednesday.

Rubin Ginsberg, Dallas attorney and director here of the ACLU, said Oswald was among about 60 persons attending an Oct. 25 meeting on the campus of Southern Methodist University.

Ginsberg said Oswald was brought to the meeting by Michael Paine, a Bell helicopter engineer and husband of Mrs. Ruth Paine, the young woman with whom Oswald's wife and children stayed for two months.

The attorney said he was moderator of the meeting Oswald attended. He said Oswald and another man sat apart from the rest of the people at the gathering. He said as far as he could remember Oswald asked no questions in a question-answer period.

Ginsberg said he did not know Oswald at the time but recognized him after his picture appeared in connection with the Kennedy assassination.

Oswald had applied for ACLU membership but officials of the group said it had not been granted.

at Patrolmen Blankenship and Shipp. The youths then dashed east to the rear of the Brown Oil Company service station, across Jefferson Street, across Pettis Street and were lost in the back lots between Pettis and Cooper.

Police described the pair as young. One wore a white coat, the other a dark coat. Their gun appeared to be a .22 caliber weapon.

Police said Blankenship and Shipp fired a total of six shots into the air, but did not fire directly at the boys because of their youthfulness. All police cars were pressed into the search and Highway Patrol Trooper Richard Joos assisted, but the two youths apparently made good their escape.

What touched off the chase and the exchange of gunfire is apparently unknown.

On investigation police said a railroad boxcar on the spurline siding behind IML Transfer Co., 416 West Main, appeared to have been tampered with. A check with Missouri-Pacific officials, however, revealed the boxcar seals still intact.

Police are continuing their investigation in quest of the pair.

Body Comes 'To Life' In Casket

LONDON (AP)—A body that came to life — though already in a casket — set off an urgent inquiry Wednesday night at a North London hospital. The patient, a woman, was last reported still alive but unconscious.

Here's what happened. Mortician Hugh Hellwood said he was called to Willesden General Hospital to get the body of Elsie Waring, 50. She had collapsed at her apartment earlier and Hellwood said physicians declared she was dead.

Hellwood placed the body in a temporary casket and took it to the public mortuary.

There he and his assistant opened the lid and measured the body for a permanent casket. Miss Waring gave a moan, Hellwood gave

Plane Crew Witnessed Jet Crash

ELKTON, Md. (AP)—A government investigator said today another plane witnessed and reported the crash of a Pan American World Airways jet airliner Sunday.

The jet, a Boeing 707, exploded at 5,000 feet on its way to Philadelphia. All 73 passengers and 8 crew members were killed in the crash.

T.W. Finch, Civil Aeronautics Board investigator at the scene, said a co-pilot on National Airlines Flight 16 not only saw the explosion, but radioed the message to Philadelphia airport saying:

"Clipper two-one-four is going down in flames."

Finch said the National Airline plane was about 1,000 feet above the jet in a severe electrical storm.

The message was originally thought to have come from a crew member on the ill-fated Pan American Flight 214.

The flight transcript, released Tuesday by the CAB, included the following final exchange:

Philadelphia Control: Okay Clipper 214. Hold as instructed and, ah, I'll pull you away as soon as I can.

Clipper 214: Roger, no hurry, just wanted you to know that, ah, we'll accept a clearance.

Control: All right, that's fine. Voice: Mayday, mayday, mayday. Clipper 214 out of control. Here we go.

Control: Clipper 214, did you call Philadelphia?

Voice: Clipper 214 is going down in flames.

Control: Clipper 214, Roger. Your message has been received.

Newsman who had listened to a recording of the exchange in Elkton had remarked at the calmness of the voice.

Alan S. Boyd, chairman of the CAB, also referred to it, saying

Tax Collections Pleasing to Dalton

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Gov. John Dalton said Wednesday he is delighted at tax collection increases in the first five months of the new fiscal year.

"These gains indicate a normal growth rate and a vigorous business climate," he said.

Receipts during the five months amounted to $112.5 million, about $10.6 million more than for the same period last year.

Sales and use tax collections increased by $4.7 million and income taxes by $2.6 million. The figure does not reflect a one-cent increase in the sales tax, which will not start to show up until January or February collections.

As of Nov. 30, the state's actual cash balance was $20 million with another $3 million in process of collection. That compared with more than $35 million a year ago, when $1.6 million was in the collection mill.

Dalton said he hoped to keep the operating balance at $20 million or better but the state could safely go as low as $15 million.

Disappearing Act By Sect At Iola Kan.

IOLA, Kan. (AP)—Leaders of a religious group that moved to Iola last January in answer to what he said was a "call from the Lord" apparently have moved away without leaving a clue.

Brother Don Kindhart, minister for the group, and seven or eight families that came to Iola, could not be located.

Members still in Iola had no comment.

Four of the families withdrew children from the Iola senior and junior high schools last Friday. An upholstery shop, operated by several members, also was reported shut down Friday.

The Zion school, which was opened this fall by the religious group, has been closed, Sheriff B. E. Lorange said.

Four children who attended the school have been re-enrolled at Carlyle, near here. Another entered the Iola school system.

Local school officials commented that this was what they had feared when the school opened, since the burden of educating the children now falls on the Iola school system which will receive no state aid for their education this year.

The Iola Register said one report had it that Kindhart and his followers have moved to a rural community in Missouri, location unknown.

The mother of one of the members, living in western Kansas, called the sheriff's office Tuesday seeking information about the group's destination. She indicated she believed the party was headed for Alaska.

When the group moved here last January, Kindhart made the following statement in a taped interview with radio station KALN of Iola, explaining the unheralded arrival of a dozen families from Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Illinois:

"God has revealed not only to us but to people who live in other areas of our country that He will use this church and through it and from it will go at least a thousand missionaries into the world to reveal Christ to the heathens.

At one time the group had approximately 75 members. They met at the Madison Avenue Baptist Church until the building was sold at sheriff's auction last April on a mortgage foreclosure. It was sold on a bid of $37,932 to the A.B. Culbertson Co. of Dallas, contracting firm which built the church.

Since then they have conducted services in a barn northeast of Iola.

Mrs. Ralph Coen, was elected president of OTZ, Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Dec. 5 at the church. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Joe Reine, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Griggs, secretary, and Mrs. William O. Hiatt, Jr., treasurer.

Worship service opened with the group singing "Hark, The Voice of Jesus Calling," accompanied by Mrs. Charles Griggs, at the piano. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Coen. A Spiritual reading was given by Mrs. John Zulauf.

Mrs. Shellie Weaver, president, presided at the business meeting and announced the Christmas party will be held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mrs. Nelson Pugh, 1316 East Eighth. There will be an exchange of gifts.

Program and activities for the new year were discussed. The secretary's report was given by Mrs. Griggs. Financial chairman, Mrs. Hiatt, gave a report.

Mrs. Coen gave the closing prayer.

Housewife Fires Shot At Suspect

LIBERTY, Mo. (AP) — A housewife disclosed Wednesday she fired a shot last week at a man who resembled one she believes may be the slayer of Mrs. Patricia Willoughby, 20, Smithville, Mo.

Mrs. Betty McDowell, 38, Kearney, Mo., said she had fired a shot at a swarthy man who entered the breezeway of her home last Thursday.

She said she is positive it was the man she saw at the scene where Mrs. Willoughby was kidnapped last October at the side of U.S. 169, south of Smithville. She added she had received two telephone calls in the last several weeks, but there was only silence when she answered.

Once she was greeted only by silence, but the other time she said the caller began to cry. "Why did you tell?" Mrs. McDowell quoted he man as saying. "Now you know what I have to do."

She said she had dismissed the calls as cranks.

Mrs. McDowell said she was in bed when she spotted a man walking beneath her window, walking back and forth at least three times.

She heard the door of the breezeway of the house open and she seized a .22 caliber pistol, checked and found the man inside the breezeway.

"I took about two steps forward and shot at him," she said. "I was about six feet from him but I missed."

She said the man fled into a nearby cemetery.

"This was the same man I talked to on the highway when I stopped to aid Mrs. Willoughby," she added.

The body of Mrs. Willoughby was found on a farm about three miles from Smithville. It was not determined how she had met her death. It was about six miles north of where her abandoned car was found, with her jacket neatly folded on the front seat.

State President Guest of Medical Auxiliary Here

Mrs. Lawrence Crispell, state Medical Auxiliary president, Joplin, was guest speaker at the Dec. 6 meeting of Woman's Medical Society at Holiday Inn. Mrs. Gordon Stauffer, Mrs. John Brazos and Mrs. Robert Stewart were hostesses. Mrs. Stewart introduced the speaker.

"Operation Hometown," pertaining to hearings on the King-Anderson Bill, and "Members at Large" were Mrs. Crispell's subjects. She suggested members could participate as members at large by joining in International Health Activities.

The luncheon table was decorated with Christmas greens and crystal apothecary jars filled with old-fashioned hard candies. Each member received small favors wrapped in gold paper and tied with green ribbon.

After luncheon, the business meeting was opened with reciting the auxiliary pledge.

Small red Christmas socks were passed around to be stuffed with contributions to AM-ERF. The socks were then hung on a red poster board. The purpose of the fund is to give financial aid to medical students, interns, and residents seeking to complete their educations. Mrs. D. R. Edwards is local chairman.

Fun Fine consisted of 25 cents each for those who were not finished with Christmas shopping, and 50 cents for those who had not begun.

The annual Christmas project was discussed and the auxiliary voted to give $10 to International Health Activities. The project provides medical goods and supplies for missionaries overseas.

Mrs. Stewart thanked the hostesses for luncheon preparations.

The next meeting will be Jan.

POLICE ADD FESTIVE AIR—Sedalia's police station took on a festive holiday mood this week as officers erected and decorated a 9½-foot Christmas tree in preparation for the department's annual party for youngsters. Adding final decorations, left to right, are Charles Ellis, retired police officer, Officer Walter

Long and Raymond Lewis, a member of the city parking meter department who assisted in putting up the tree. Ellis and Long were chairman of the solicitation to obtain funds for the Christmas treats for youngsters. Children will visit Santa Claus and receive a sack of goodies at the police station Saturday, Dec. 21, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Honesty of Tom Tryon May Make Him Next Big Star

NEW YORK (AP)—The honesty of Tom Tryon, who may be Hollywood's next big star, is as impressive as his acting ability. A year ago Tom, who is 6 feet 4, dark and handsome, was a good journeyman actor well-known to movie and television producers, but comparatively unknown to the public.

Then Otto Preminger picked him over 20 other candidates for one of the best roles on the movie horizon for some time.

The title role is in "The Cardinal."

After viewing some of the early scenes, Preminger signed Tryon, who looks much like Bishop Sheen and Sir Laurence Olivier, for five more films.

The 18-year-old camp because it needs renovation and "walkoff escapes" have become too frequent.

Tom is neither Irish nor Catholic. He is of Dutch-English descent, and as a youth in Hartford, Conn., attended a typical New England Congregational church — "You know, big, white steeple, white pillars, and hard seats."

Although fascinated by the ritual of the Catholic Church, Tryon said his experience in portraying "The Cardinal" had not made him any more religious.

"I'm in no sense a convert," he said frankly. "But after President Kennedy's death — I don't usually go to church too often — I felt the need of being in one, and I went into a Catholic church, and I lit a candle for him."

"I felt at home there," he said.

Tom, who studied painting at Yale University, spent three years in the Navy. He didn't decide to become an actor until after he had tried a few walk-on parts in a summer stock company and performed such other theatrical chores as holding up television cue cards.

After an apprenticeship on Broadway, Tom worked in about 10 films and more than a hundred television shows before Preminger, who has always had a canny eye for a promising newcomer, gave him the biggest break of his career.

"Television gives you the chance to learn to act in front of 10 million people," Tryon said. "But the trouble with it is that the industry has become too imitative. As soon as anyone comes up with a bright new idea, everyone else rushes in and tries to copy it."

"Now it is just rubberstamping sausages."

Tom said that one of the funniest things about his recent fame came when a fan magazine writer asked him to name "all the disasters in your life, such as whether you mother ever fell down the stairs, and asked him in desperation: "Well, didn't you at least have acne when you were a kid?"

Sugar Beet Quota Increases Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two groups from Missouri appealed to the Agriculture Department Wednesday for sugar beet allotments.

One group is the Western Missouri Beet Growers Association. The other represents prospective growers in Pemiscot, Dunklin and New Madrid counties in southeast Missouri.

Each delegation asked for a 50,000-ton allotment, the minimum considered necessary to sustain a refinery.

Under the intricate system of import and domestic sugar quotas, the Agriculture Department plans to expand beet sugar production by 179,300 tons through 1966. Thirty-three areas have asked for allotments totaling

Big Eight Conference Sets A Grid Attendance Record

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Big Eight Conference set a new football attendance record this fall with an average of 32,770 fans for each home game, and three schools—Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska—set new season records.

The conference broke its record average of 32,152 set in 1962, although the Oklahoma-Texas game at Dallas didn't count as a home game for Oklahoma as it did a year ago. The game is a 75,504 sellout every year.

Wayne Duke, Big Eight executive director, said today the Texas game is counted as an OU home game every other year. Even though it wasn't counted this year, Oklahoma drew an average of 54,218 for its five games in Norman, best in the conference.

Total home attendance passed the one million mark for the seventh straight year. The total was 1,212,483 for 37 games. In 1962, the total was 1,253,936 for 39 games. The third best year in league history was the 32,122 average in 1960 for 1,284,878 fans at 40 home games.

This season's average was more than 4,000 a game above any previous year in which the Texas game didn't count for OU. Next best is the 28,691 average of 1961. The Big Eight's 12 per cent attendance increase in 1962 was the largest among the nation's major conferences.

Ed Brown NFL Player Of the Week

NEW YORK (AP)—The wind flushed Ed Brown's face as he stood on his own goal line in punt formation.

"We had to pass. There was no way we could punt. We had to get out of that hole," said Pittsburgh Coach Buddy Parker.

"Everyone knew what they were going to do. They had to run or throw," said Dallas Coach Tom Landry.

Brown took a snap from center. He didn't punt. He passed. Red Mack latched onto the pass for a 42-yard gain, and the Steelers kept rolling until Theron Sapp bolted 24 yards for the touchdown that gave Pittsburgh a 24-19 victory and moved them into this Sunday's winner-take-all battle with the Giants for the Eastern Conference title.

For Brown's ability to successfully complete the gamble the first time he had attempted to pass from punt formation this season, the 10-year-veteran was named today National Football League Player of the Week by The Associated Press.

The Steelers' final drive was an amazing sequence, thrusting Brown, Mack and Sapp into the spotlight. Trailing 19-17, the Steelers started from the 20, but on fourth down the ball was four yards closer to the Pittsburgh goal, with about 3½ minutes remaining.

Brown's call was a pass to Mack.

Other standout performances were turned in by Baltimore quarterback Johnny Unitas, St. Louis signal-caller Charlie Johnson, Willie Galimore of the Chicago Bears, Detroit quarterback Earl Morrall and New York defensive back Dick Lynch.

Add Another Victory To Boston Total

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Add another under-100 defensive performance to Boston's total, and, of course, another victory.

The Celtics played their 21st game Wednesday night, and for the ninth time this season held the opposition under 100. St. Louis was the latest victim, 104-95, as the Hawks dropped behind Los Angeles into second place in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association.

Defense is the reason the Celtics have an amazing 19-2 record. In the two games they lost—both to Cincinnati—the Royals went over the 100-mark. Boston, meanwhile, has been held under 100 only once, by Cincinnati. The Celtics, however, won that one.

The Celtics' latest triumph—their ninth straight at home—kept them 5½ games in front of Cincinnati in the Eastern Division race. The Royals walloped Detroit 127-107. In the only other game scheduled, Philadelphia defeated New York 113-103.

Signs With Packers

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—University of Wisconsin co-captain and center Ken Bowman said he had signed a contract Wednesday with the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League.

Missouri's record average was 44,720, up 2,910 over a mark set in 1962. Kansas had a new high average of 36,083, up 1,919 a game over last year, and Nebraska a record of 37,187, up 4,761 a game over '62.

Colorado averaged 25,911, down 1,583; Oklahoma State 20,956, down 717; Iowa State 17,600, up 780; and Kansas State 12,860, up 1,100.

Missouri added 3,600 seats and Kansas 6,500 before the season. This contributed to the new marks. Five schools gained over last year's pace and three dropped off.

Four schools set new one-game home attendance marks, two without benefit of expanded stadiums. Nebraska set a mark with 40,106 at the Kansas game; Missouri drew a record 51,800 for its Nebraska game; Kansas had 45,000 for the Missouri game and Iowa State 23,200 for its game with Missouri.

BOWL BOUND—With Illinois entrenched as Big Ten champion, Coach Pete Elliott congratulates his All-America center and linebacker, Dick Butkus. The rose Elliott is holding was presented him by a well-wisher for luck in the Rose Bowl game, which the Illini will play against Washington in Pasadena, Jan. 1.

Papa Bear Would Like A New Title

CHICAGO (AP)—George Halas, the frisky, 68-year-old Papa Bear, has won one title, but would like another.

He's working on it.

In the midst of Halas' preparations for a likely do-or-die finale against the Detroit Lions Sunday for the Western Division title, Papa Bear was voted Coach of the Year in the National Football League by an Associated Press panel of sports writers and sportscasters from the 14 NFL cities.

If the Bears defeat the Lions, they will clinch the Western crown with an 11-1-2 record and be host to the NFL championship game at Wrigley Field against the Eastern champion—New York or Pittsburgh—Dec. 29.

If the Bears lose, and Green Bay wins Saturday at San Francisco, the Packers will snatch the Western title from the Bears, who have held or shared first place since the season started Sept. 15.

"Let's not talk about Sunday at the moment," said Halas when informed of his selection. "This is a great tribute which I sincerely appreciate," continued the NFL pioneer and pro Hall of Fame member. "But I am custodian of the honor only because of the splendid job done by our players and coaching staff."

"Particularly, this honor reflects the tremendous performance by our defense which, I believe, now leads in 10 of the league's 13 defensive categories."

Would a sectional championship (the Bears' first since 1956) or even a league title (first since 1946) lead Halas into retirement?

"Let's cross that bridge when we come to it," said Halas, who has been associated with the Bears for 44 seasons.

Cast Off Hand

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—The cast was taken off the injured left hand of Prairie View A&M quarterback Jim Kearney Wednesday, raising hopes that he will play in the Camellia Bowl Saturday for the National Small College Football Championship.

Marv Levy, Cal Coach, Quits Post

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Marv Levy, the young Phi Beta Kappa key holder who inherited a murderous schedule and an average set of players as California football coach, resigned suddenly Wednesday.

Levy, a surprise appointment in 1960 to succeed Pete Elliott, was brought to Cal after a 14-6 record at New Mexico. He was regarded as a good image for the state university trying to field teams made up of students bucking stringent grade and entrance requirements.

He leaves with an 8-29-3 record in four seasons—and the onus of having a 1-3 mark against arch-rival Stanford.

Like Stanford's Jack Curtice, fired late last year, Levy left after his best season, 4-5-1. The pressure on Levy began building up at the end of the 1962 season, but eased at the start of this one. The Bears' schedule pitted them against such teams as Notre Dame, Illinois, Duke and Pittsburg.

The 38-year-old Coe College graduate and holder of a Harvard Master's degree in history said in his surprise dinner-hour announcement:

"I have decided that it would be in the best interests of the university and all parties concerned to resign... my reasons for doing so are personal in nature. It has been a wonderful experience working at the university and I wish every success to the members of the team in the future."

In the varsity contest, the Orioles grabbed a five-point lead in the first period and added to it considerably during the second stanza. Concordia held a substantial half-time lead of 17 points.

Jockeys Fussy About Pants, Says Lady Who Makes 'em

MIAMI (AP) — Jockeys are particular about their pants, and if you think that doesn't present a problem, ask Mrs. John D. Sheehy.

For 15 years this motherly-looking, middle-aged widow with a Tennessee twang in her voice has outfitted America's leading riders and her colors have been on everything from cheap claimers to Kentucky Derby winners.

She has two women helpers, and their workshop in a modest home on the outskirts of Miami is crammed with cutting and sewing machines, patterns, helmets and bolts of silk and nylon in all colors.

In addition to jockey pants and caps, Mrs. Sheehy turns out shirts in the colors of thoroughbred stables and blinker hoods for horses.

While much of Mrs. Sheehy's business comes by telephone, telegraph or mail, many jockeys call in person to try on their pants and insist on a perfect fit from waistband to ankles. They sell for $35 a pair.

The pants must be fitted so they won't sag when the jockey walks out into the paddock but won't bind when he mounts a spirited thoroughbred and draws his knees up under his chin. There must be room to pump those tiny legs in the heat of competition, too.

The pants are made without belt loops or pockets, with an adjustable strap in back and buttons in front. The tops are of nylon but they're elastic from calf to ankle and fit snugly around the lower leg.

A rule of The Jockey Club calls for riders to wear helmets, and Mrs. Sheehy makes caps to fit these.

Shirts are made in one size, full in the shoulders with ample room for action. If the sleeves are too long, the boys tuck them up with rubber bands around the wrists.

Nell Sheehy once worked in a garment factory in her home town of Milan, Tenn., and John Sheehy owned horses. After their marriage they traveled from track to track by trailer.

Every time they pulled into a trailer park, word spread that a seamstress had joined the colony At Narragansett Park in Massachusetts she made some jockey pants for Frank Harris, a valet.

This led to other orders and when Sheehy's health failed, he sold his horses and said to his wife, "You make the pants and I'll sell 'em."

Sheehy died in October, 1951, but Mrs. Sheehy was encouraged to stay in business.

Flight Recorder Badly Damaged In Jet Wreckage

WASHINGTON (AP) — The flight recorder recovered from wreckage of the jet airliner that crashed near Elkton, Md., Sunday night, killing all 81 persons aboard, is badly damaged, a Civil Aeronautics Board spokesman said Wednesday.

Investigators have started to take the device apart and reconstruct the tape that would show the plane's altitude, speed, heading and vertical velocity at the time of the crash.

The instrument is "in thousands of pieces, and it's a regular jigsaw puzzle to sort them out," the spokesman said.

The CAB also is interviewing members of the crews of all the other airplanes — about eight — that were in the general area.

Particular attention is being given to National Airlines Flight 16, a DC-8 jet that was circling at 6,000 feet, about 1,000 feet above the Pan American World Airways 707 when that jet blew apart in the air.

Officials of National at Miami gave the CAB a report Tuesday night including a statement from the copilot of the National plane that it was his voice heard on taped radio communications to the traffic controller at the Philadelphia Airport, saying that the Pan American plane was going down in flames.

Kansas City, St. Louis Games Top Schedule

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A two-game series in Kansas City with the St. Louis Cardinals will top off the 27-game exhibition schedule of the Kansas City Athletics.

The first game will be at 6 p.m. on Saturday, April 11, the second the following day at 2 p.m.

First on the list of the club's exhibition opponents will be the Pittsburgh Pirates, March 14 at Bradenton. Nineteen of the A's games will be against National League clubs and eight against American League clubs.

To Learn a Lot

Staubach Receives Trophy As the Top Football Player

NEW YORK (AP)—Now hear this from Navy's Roger Staubach:

"I have a lot to learn about passing. I figure I'll learn a lot more about football in the next year and a half. I'm going to work hard next season. I hope we can improve on this season's record."

That comforting news for Navy's opponents came from the All-America quarterback Wednesday night when he accepted the Heisman Trophy award as the top football player in the country.

Staubach led Navy to a 9-1 record, a No. 2 national ranking and a spot in the Cotton Bowl against top-ranked Texas.

Jolly Roger was asked how he figures he has "a lot to learn about passing."

"Lots of times I wait for my receiver to get in the open before I throw," he said. "That's wrong. The pros throw to where the receiver is supposed to be."

Did that mean Staubach was interested in a pro career?

"I have received questionnaires from professional football teams but I haven't talked to anyone because I still have a year and a half at the academy and then four years of service."

Among the other things, Staubach discussed was the support he received from the entire Navy team.

"I can't say enough about the support they gave me. Tom Lynch would do anything for me on the field or off and I feel the same way about him. If I hadn't been getting that second

Another Michigan Player to Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A third player from Michigan State will join the Kansas City Chiefs in 1964.

The American Football League club announced Wednesday the signing of Ed Lothamer, a 240-pound tackle from Detroit.

Lothamer, 21, was the fourth draft choice of the Chiefs and the fifth choice of the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League. The other Michigan State players with the Chiefs are end Fred Arbanas and guard Ed Budde.

Three Cohens Win

BALTIMORE (AP) — If you went to Pimlico Tuesday with intentions of putting a bet on Cohen's horse in the fourth race, you had your hands full.

Three owners named Cohen had 2-year-olds in the event and they finished one-two-three.

Phillip Cohen's Kings Only won. Gee Cohen's Bobby Maise was second and Nathan Cohen's Chick Lang was third. They're not related.

Paul Flatley Is Rookie Of the Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Paul Flatley, rangy split end of the Minnesota Vikings, was named Rookie of the Year in the National Football League Thursday by an Associated Press panel from 14 league cities.

The 6-foot-1, 187-pound former Northwestern star, ranked eighth among the top pass receivers in the league in the latest statistics. He had caught 51 passes for 867 yards and four touchdowns and was the only newcomer among the leaders.

The Vikings' scouting staff selected Flatley as the club's No. 4 draft a year ago at Chicago.

"Paul has great hands and uses his head," said Coach Norm Van Brocklin recently. "He has everything but blazing speed."

John Mackey, Baltimore's 6-3, 220-pound tight end from Syracuse, a No. 2 draftee, also received mention from several of the 42-man committee of sports writers and sportscasters, three from each NFL city.

Don Brumm, defensive end of the St. Louis Cardinals who made him their No. 1 draftee from Purdue, was outstanding despite injuries. Ron Goodwin, Philadelphia offensive end from Baylor, also impressed the panel after a slow start due to injuries.

Two College Cage Games In Kansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Only two college basketball games were played in Kansas Wednesday night and only one involving a Kansas team is scheduled tonight — Washburn at Warrensburg State.

Both Wednesday night games were in the Kansas Conference, Ottawa defeating Baker 62-59 at Ottawa, and McPherson chalking up a 56-49 home victory over Bethel.

Ottawa's victory was its second without a loss in conference action. Baker, which started slow, caught up and took the lead at 53-52 with 3:20 left. However, Tony Verdi's basket put Ottawa back in front to stay at 54-53. Jim Hutton of Ottawa and Duane Bissitt of Baker shared scoring honors with 18 points each.

George Czapinski was high scorer at McPherson with 19 points for the home team. Robert Fairbank led Bethel with 11. McPherson led only 37-34 midway in the second half, but quickly widened its advantage to 46-34 and maintained a good margin the rest of the way.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If Bobby Hull doesn't do it, the chances are good that Stan Mikita will.

And with that best-in-the-league one-two punch, it's small wonder the Chicago Black Hawks are making a runaway of the National Hockey League race.

Mikita collected three goals and added an assist while Hull collected his 200th NHL career goal Wednesday night in Chicago's 6-2 romp over New York.

The victory, combined with Detroit's 3-1 triumph over Toronto increased the Black Hawks' leading margin to 10 points. The Hawks now have picked up 20 points in their last 12 games.

He had found her wallet and the $43 she had saved to buy gifts for her five youngsters.

An hour later Walter Cooley, 19, showed up with the money. He explained he had spotted the wallet in a shopping center parking lot, where he is working as Santa Claus.

Sailors Are Blamed

DUNOON, Scotland (AP)—This town on the Holy Loch, where the U.S. Polaris submarines are based, has become officially Scotland's black spot for illegitimate births.

Latest report from the registrar-general of Scotland, just published, shows that the illegitimacy figure last year in Dunoon rose from 6.3 per cent to 15.3 per cent. These figures are based on a much higher birth rate than formerly, and the news has staggered this already-shocked town.

A local official, who asked not to be identified by name, blamed American sailors for the increase, saying: "It would be quite accurate to say that the majority of these illegitimate babies had American fathers."

Vote Buying Charged By Grand Jury

CARROLLTON, Mo. (AP)—Vote buying is a widespread, openly conducted practice in Carroll County, a county grand jury charged Wednesday. It returned two indictments.

Jack Mathis, a councilman from Carrollton's first ward, was charged with buying for $5 the vote of Marvin Lentz in the April 2, 1963, city election, county attorney David Thomas said. Mathis was released on $250 bond.

The other person had not been arrested and his identity was not disclosed.

Mathis was elected in April. He is a Republican. "I hardly know the man,"

WPFA Origin, Deeds Explained at Meet

The origin and accomplishments of WPFA were topics of the study lesson at the Dec. 5 meeting of Maple Grove JFA at Maple Grove School.

Painted wood projects were worked on during the evening. Roll call was answered by naming state WPFA officers.

Pound party refreshments were served. The next meeting will be Jan. 2 at the school.

Mathis said. "If we got any justice in our courts, there's no doubt that I'll be acquitted."

The grand jury had the aid of Assistant Atty. Gen. Robert D. Kingsland and Chief Investigator Leslie V. Woodward from the Missouri attorney general's office.

Warren May Absorb Extra Probe Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice Earl Warren, keen-eyed and vigorous at 72, will shoulder his full load of Supreme Court duties while heading the presidential inquiry into President John F. Kennedy's assassination.

That is just an assumption, since Warren has uttered not a word publicly on his plans. But his associates and friends claim they know Warren's views quite well enough to predict his course.

He is resolved to absorb his extra load as chairman of the bipartisan presidential commission by working nights and weekends, taking advantage of holidays and court recesses, and possibly giving up all or part of his usual three-week Christmas (trip home to California. There may be one case, far ahead, which Warren will avoid. If the Supreme Court ever entertains an appeal from a Texas murder case involving Jack Ruby, the court's opinion is sure to carry a notation at the bottom reading: "Mr. Chief Justice Warren took no part in the consideration or decision of this case."

Ruby, 52, is the man charged with slaying Lee Harvey Oswald on Nov. 24, two days after Dallas police charged Oswald with assassinating Kennedy. Ruby's pistol obliterated all hope of fixing Oswald's guilt by the only sure way, Oswald's own confession.

Thus Ruby not only is indirectly responsible for creation of the Warren commission but also figures heavily in its investigation.

There is no law or court rule which says a Supreme Court justice may not participate in a case in which he has prior knowledge or interest. It is up to the conscience of each justice. Warren's conscience, like the justice himself, works overtime.

Coin Supply Is Tight In Most Areas

Shortage Worsens With Yule Season Shopping Sprees

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury expressed its concern today over the coin shortage which has become steadily worse during the Christmas shopping rush.

In the past few months, the Treasury has tried not to call attention to the shortage, apparently on the theory that publicity would lead to hoarding.

But the shortage was obvious long before the start of the Christmas season. There are now shortages in every denomination except silver dollars. The supply is tight in almost every area of the nation.

Some banks have been asking the public to keep their coins in circulation. Some companies which rely heavily on coins in their business have been shipping large amounts from one area to another.

The shortage is said to be due to good business in retail sales and increased use of vending machines, parking meters and other such devices.

Demand for coins usually reaches a peak about Dec. 15, but Treasury officials apparently are bothered more about the prospect of continued shortages than about the current dearth of change.

A Treasury spokesman expressed the concern in a statement.

The Philadelphia and Denver mints, working on virtually a 24-hour day, seven-day week basis, will produce 4.1 billion pieces of change in the year which ends next June 30 but it has been estimated that the nation's commerce could use 6 billion.

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Col. Charles Yeager, commandant of the aerospace pilot school here, escaped serious injury when he was forced to parachute from an experimental NF104 jet fighter plane Tuesday.

The first man to fly faster than sound, Yeager ejected when his rocket-assisted plane went into a spin as he was coming back into the atmosphere from about 100,000 feet, an Air Force spokesman said.

Yeager suffered face burns when the oxygen in his mask ignited. The plane was destroyed.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara says he has no plans to leave his Cabinet post.

Asked at a news conference Tuesday how long he hopes to remain as Pentagon chief, McNamara replied with a chuckle: "Well, I don't really think how long I hope to remain is as pertinent as how long the President will ask me to remain."

Techniques in Using Iron

A good combination dry and steam iron plus proper techniques of use will give you good results for a wide variety of fabrics. As with other pieces of equipment, how you use the steam iron may be more important than which one you own. Alter your techniques for ironing or pressing according to the characteristics of the fabric and of your iron.

Know the fiber of your fabric. Some fibers will take more heat and steam than others. Test an inside seam or a fabric sample.

Keep labels with laundry and pressing instructions — they'll help you determine the best temperature and technique for specific garments — some may recommend "no steaming" or a temperature too low to produce steam. (Dyrol, acetate.)

Protect delicate fabrics with a cheese cloth, muslin or drill press cloth when pressing from right side to avoid fabric damage, shine, or steam iron spattering.

Keep the iron moving—in any steam iron, only part of the soleplate has a steam area. For the slow worker or for the slow, careful job, the temperature control may need to be set at the next lower setting than the one recommended.

Press with the fabric grain. Better results are achieved if wool is not pressed until entirely dry.

To raise the nap on same fabrics use a piece of self fabric. On others a terry towel under the right side will give satisfactory results. Steam from the wrong side. Or, apply steam to surface of the fabric and use a soft brush to lift the nap.

Best Ironing Results In "Know How"
To iron is to slide and rub the dry, heated iron on dry or dampened fabrics. Usually the weight of the iron is sufficient to remove wrinkles. Additional pressure will produce the "polish" or shine sometimes desirable on table linens or heavily dampened and ironed completely dry with dry iron at high temperature. Iron dark colored fabrics from wrong side to prevent shine.

Some "man - made" fabrics (dyrol, dacron, acrilan) require lower temperature than is needed to produce steam in the iron. Use the dry iron at a "warm," "low" or "synthetic" setting for the little touch-up ironing these fabrics may need.

To steam press is to apply steam with or without iron-to-fabric contact in a series of lifting motions. Use on garments to remove wrinkles, to form crease lines, to flatten the edges or shape garments during construction. Keep the weight of the iron in your hand and with a raise and lower motion; exert only the pressure needed for the particular fabric. This pressing technique is especially important for knits or soft weaves that stretch, or for any fabric that "shines" because of over-heat or pressure.

To steam iron is to combine steam with the stroking of the iron in contact with the fabric. Use of the dry iron on dampened fabrics or with damp press cloth is also ironing with steam; however, more and more of today's casual "minimum care" garments and household fabrics can be quickly ironed with the steam iron without previous dampening. Expect less crispness than if using a dry iron on dampened fabrics.

Try steam ironing for cottons with wrinkle resistant finishes, "permanently" starched cotton, blends of cotton and man-made fabrics.

Know the fiber of your fabrics. Pretest temperature setting on a scrap of material and remember heat can build up if you let iron rest on same spot while you maneuver to press a tedious seam or fold.

Press each seam before crossing with another.

Use a clapper on wools or heavy materials to force steam through lapel edges, pleats, or seams, to flatten them without damaging or shining the fabric. (Do not use clapper on pile fabrics.)

Use strips of heavy paper under seam to avoid seam imprints on right side of garment. Learn to steam without pressure or movement of iron, then finger press.

Use a pressing ham, pressing roll or sleeve board for pressing shaped garment areas.

Take Care of Your Iron
Read, follow and keep manufacturer's instructions for future reference.

Protect soleplate from scratches—don't iron over pins, snaps, etc.

Clean soleplate while iron is cool. Use mildest method that will do the job—first a damp cloth, detergent, scouring powder or soap-filled steel wool. Wipe clean. Rub heated iron over waxed paper, then on dry cloth.

Know capacity and measure correct amount of water to avoid overflowing or overflowing water onto iron.

Disconnect iron from electric outlet while filling (especially if filling at tap). Keep cord dry.

When ironing is completed, turn steam switch to "dry" and disconnect cord.

Disconnect cord from outlet by the plug—not by pulling on cord. Do not wrap cord around hot iron.

Some manufacturers recommend rinsing out iron with tap water and draining before storing.

Store in upright position — especially flash types.

In Buying Vegetables

If you are a good shopper you select asparagus that is fresh, tender and firm, smooth, tight tipped and easily snapped. Beans that are clean, firm, bright, crisp, stringless, tender; free from insect damage, moldy or watery spots; or that have the same ripeness.

Beets that are smooth, free from cracks and insect damage, clean, firm; that have no shriveled or soft spots. Broccoli that is dark green, tender, not split or hollow; that has tightly closed buds, no yellow buds, but firm stalks and stems.

Cabbage that is fairly solid, firm, and heavy; white or green with no yellow leaves, worm injury or decay. Carrots that are firm, crisp, not shriveled, well shaped, smooth, free of green color.

Celery that has stalks of medium length and thickness and close together, brittle enough to snap easily. Corn that is well filled with shiny, plump, milky potatoes that are sound, smooth, shallow eyed, clean, free from cuts and scaly spots. Summer squash that is heavy for size, free from cuts or bruises, fresh, tender at the blossom end.

Winter squash that is hard on outside; free from brown, moldy, or soft spots. Sweet potatoes that are smooth, well-shaped, firm, of bright appearance.

Tomatoes that are mature, firm, well formed, plump, smooth, bright in color; free from cracks and green or sunburned area. Turnips that are smooth, heavy for size, firm, not shriveled; that have few leaf scars and few roots at the base.

Plans Ready For Saturn I Launching

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Ginny cost us two days. Then we lost another week because of the hydrogen explosion on Nov. 26. Otherwise, Saturn I is on the launching schedule laid out is August.

Army Lt. Col. Rocco A. Petrone was outlining months of painstaking preparation leading to the launching of what officials believe to be the world's most powerful rocket.

Barring further trouble, the 16-story-tall Saturn I will rumble skyward next Wednesday in the first attempt to ignite its high-energy liquid hydrogen second stage. Four earlier launchings of the kerosene-driven first stage were successful.

Petrone, assistant director for plans and project management at the space agency's launch operations center, emphasized the upcoming flight will be strictly a research and development test. But as a bonus, he said, Saturn I will attempt to orbit the world's heaviest satellite — 83 feet long and weighing 19 tons, including 5½ tons of sand for ballast.

When the Saturn I — forerun-der of the Saturn V — is launched, it will carry a payload of 145,000 pounds to orbit.

The Saturn I is the first of three stages of the Saturn V, the largest rocket ever built. It will be launched from the Kennedy Space Center, Fla.

'Sobering' Thoughts In 'Report'

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Manhattan's Harlem, jammed with a population close to one-half million, was the laboratory in which "CBS Reports" Wednesday night attempted to sample moods, emotion and opinions of Negro leaders in the current equal rights struggle.

It was impossible in one hour to do more than touch on the aims of groups as far apart as the extremist "Back to Africa" and black nationalist organizations on one hand and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Congress of Racial Equality and the National Urban League on the other.

But merely by presenting the problems of what narrator Harry Reasoner called a Negro ghetto—slums, bad housing, unemployment and a shortage of trained people plus impatience and revolt against their situation—the program served an important purpose.

It was a sobering, thought-provoking show. It found the Harlem temper very, very warm.

ABC plans a major reshuffling of its daytime schedules on Dec. 30, which will put a number of shows in new time spots, result in the demise of five-year-

'Hard Line' Call On West By Red China

TOKYO (AP)—Red China has denounced the United States as a "ferocious imperialist country" with "the mad strategic aim of conquering the world."

Peking blasted the United States in a propaganda barrage calling on the Soviet Union to turn its foreign policy from a "soft line" to the "hard line" pursued by the Chinese in dealing with the West.

The latest attack against Soviet Khrushchev's peaceful co-existence policy was contained in a joint article made public in the Chinese party organ People's Daily and the theoretical journal Red Flag.

An earlier broadcast said that Khrushchev's Oct. 25 call for a truce in the ideological war was hypocritical and "double faced tactics."

old "Who Do You Trust?" and the birth of still another game show.

Involved in the switches are "Seven Keys," "The Ernie Ford Show," "General Hospital" and "Queen for a Day."

"Who Do You Trust?" started in October 1958 with Johnny Carson as comedian-in-charge of audience interviews. Woody Woodbury, a Florida night club entertainer, took over the show when Johnny moved to NBC and the "Tonight Show" last season.

World News In Brief

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Investigators believe financial troubles were responsible for the suicide today of a retired South Korean army officer who set himself afire near the official residence of President-elect Chung Hee Park.

The prosecutor in charge of the investigation said the victim, Lt. Col. Kim Ki-hyun, 45, had recently suffered business failures and was jobless.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government is cracking down on a religious sect with captives in southern Russia, central Asia and Siberia, claiming it is an underground, anti-Communist organization.

A report in a central Asian newspaper indicated Soviet security authorities were seriously concerned with the extent of the sect's operation.

The sect is known as the "True Orthodox Christian Wanderers." Its total membership was not given.

'No' Leads In Probe Of Jets Damage

WILLIAMS AIR FORCE BASE, Ariz. — A fast-paced probe into the internal damaging of 61 T38 jet trainers at Williams Air Force Base entered its third day today.

Publicly, at least, there were no known leads.

J. James Rowan, assistant agent in charge of the FBI's Arizona office answered, "No comment."

Lt. James I. Ridley, the base information officer, said he knew of no developments, and referred queries to the FBI.

The damage was revealed Monday afternoon. Ridley said it had been discovered that morning, and presumably occurred during the weekend.

Electrical wires had been cut on at least one of the landing gears on 61 of the supersonic jet trainers. The base has 75 of the trainers.

Col. William C. Lindley Jr., wing commander, said the damage wasn't considered dangerous because it was the sort of thing which would be discovered on the normal pre-flight inspection.

In Washington, an Illinois congressman called on the House Armed Services Committee for a full investigation. Republican Leslie C. Arends called the incident incomprehensible and inexcusable, and declared: "there is grave laxity in our military security."

NO SILVER IN THEM THAR BILLS—The Treasury Department has placed a new dollar bill in circulation. It has no silver backing and is the first change in the dollar bill since 1957 when the motto "In God We Trust" was added. While the face of the new bill has the same reassuring portrait of George Washington, all references to silver above and below his portrait have been deleted. (new bill at top). The more than 50 million new bills will free the government stockpile of silver bullion for coins.

Manned Space Laboratories Well On Way

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON — Groundwork for the Pentagon's "new" program for manned orbiting laboratories has been under way for months, with both the Air Force and the civilian space agency in on the preliminaries. Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara put the project into high gear Tuesday with his announcement the Air Force had been assigned full responsibility for running it.

The aim is to have an initial model of a "Gemini-X," with-out men aboard, in near-earth orbit in the first half of 1966 and to have the full-sized, manned laboratory aloft about four years from now.

Contracts for studies on the project already had been either let or invited by both the Air Force and Space Agency and the designing of the super-powerful Titan III rocket booster was well along before the formal announcement.

In disclosing the space laboratory venture, McNamara also announced termination of the Dyna-Soar orbital glider project.

A Pentagon spokesman said today that under an agreement between the Pentagon and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration it expects NASA will make available to the Air Force the data from its own studies of the feasibility and technique for multi-manned laboratories.

NASA announced award of one such study contract earlier this month to Douglas Aircraft Co. This study is aimed at refining NASA's concept of "a cylindrical six-man spacecraft" put into orbit by a big booster rocket.

In talking to newsmen Tuesday, McNamara side-stepped the question of how many men would be carried in the Air Force version. He said only that it would be more than two men (the number of NASA's own Gemini capsule project).

Some Grisly Statistics

The 1963 motor vehicle accident scoreboard is destined to record a grim conclusion. On the basis of statistics compiled by the Missouri Highway Patrol for all months except December, the picture looks none too bright.

The Central Missouri counties surrounding Pettis show, for the most part, increases in the number of accidents, deaths, injuries and property damage during the past eleven months.

In thirteen mid-western counties, including Pettis, Captain G. W. Pate, commanding officer of Troop A, reveals there have been 468 more accidents, 17 more killed, 353 more injured and $243,823 more property damage this year than in the similar period of last year. This year's total deaths, by the way, reached 155 at the close of November.

Johnson county is setting a faster destructive pace than Pettis, oddly enough; eighteen fatalities in Johnson and 9 in Pettis. In accidents Johnson leads Pettis by 39; in injuries by 173; in property damage by $21,204.

All sorts of comparisons can be made of the state patrol's area statistics as well as those state-wide. But one thing is conclusive, these figures are damntory evidence that the incessant safety preachments are not getting through to enough motorists.

That does not mean all motorists involved in accidents ignored safety practices on the road. Many of the dead and injured listed were innocent victims of the recklessness of other drivers.

A sidelight on the recklessness of some motor vehicle owners is noted in the Troop A area report of summary driver examinations for just one month—November. Under reasons for examinations is listed "defective vehicles." There were 828 of these. Think of that—in one month.

What an odorous tribute this is to Missouri's legislative neglect of a motor vehicle inspection law.

Defective motor cars have no right on Missouri's highways. This imperfection in our vehicular code lends itself to renewed consideration at the next session of the General Assembly.

In the meantime, especially during the approaching holiday season, every motorist can contribute to lessening the highway holocaust by voluntary discipline in the ways of safe driving, starting right now.

Attention to Age In Succession Talk

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — The important problem of age gets scant notice down through the generations as constitutional experts argue a question as old as the Constitution itself.

Who should succeed to the presidency if there is no president or vice president? Should it be a member of Congress? Should it be a member of the president's Cabinet, starting with the secretary of state?

You can do arithmetic which will show that over the past 30 years, on the average, the secretary of state was younger when he began his job than the speaker of the House or the Senate's president pro tempore.

Then you run into an old truism: It's not just a question of age but how good a man is at whatever his age happens to be. Right now age is getting attention because under present law next in line behind President Johnson for the presidency, if he died, are two aging men: House Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., and Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., the Senate's president pro tempore.

McCormack is almost 72; Hayden is 86.

Neither could be accurately described as a ball of fire. There were reports Wednesday that both might step down to let younger men be in line if anything happened to Johnson.

But when a reporter asked McCormack about it, he stormed out, saying: "Is there no limit to decency?" He had previously said he favors the present arrangement which puts him next in line for the White House.

And in the Senate, Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana not only defended Hayden but practically called him a monument.

Under law for 94 years, from 1792 until 1886, this was the line of succession: the Senate's president pro tempore and then the House speaker.

Under a change in the law and for 61 years, from 1886 until 1947, this was the succession: the members of the Cabinet, starting with secretary of state.

The law was changed again in 1947 and for the past 16 years this has been the succession: the speaker of the House, the Senate's president pro tempore, and then the Cabinet, starting with the secretary of state.

The average age of the Cabinet which Johnson took over from President Kennedy — in contrast to McCormack's 71 years and Hayden's 86—is 49 years. Secretary of State Dean Rusk is 54.

For the past 30 years the av-

More Than $8 Million In Veteran Payments Slated Next Month

KANSAS CITY (AP) — More than $8 million in veterans insurance dividends will be paid to Missouri and Kansas veterans of World Wars I and II in January.

A spokesman for the Veterans Administration regional office here said today $3,378,400 will be distributed among 107,637 veterans in Missouri and $2,658,300 to 53,238 veterans in Kansas. There is no breakdown by cities.

No dividends are paid to Korean War veterans since they hold non-participating policies.

Needed: New Gearing For A Creaky Congress

By PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
WASHINGTON — All hope for study of congressional reorganization and reform have been knocked for this session and probably the next, after two short, dull rounds of debate.

On successive days, Senators Joe Clark, D-Pa., and Clifford Case, R-N.J. — co-sponsors with 30 other senators of a resolution to set up a joint committee on organization of Congress—asked unanimous consent to consider an amendment which would permit six senators and six representatives to study the antiquated Senate and House rules.

Two words—"I object"—were enough to kill the unanimous consent request under existing rule. Sponsors of the reform movement had no stomach for a knock-down, drag-out fight which might lead to a filibuster. So they threw in the towel. And modernization of congressional procedures to speed them up is dead.

Many senators and representatives are pretty sensitive these days to criticism that this session has been a "do-nothing" Congress. Their contention is that long sessions and apathy in Congress are not new. The same criticism of every Congress have been made for the last 50 or 100 years.

Back any intelligent member of Congress into a corner for his private opinions, however, and he will deliver a far worse indictment of the present legislative inaction than anything that has been said or written by outside critics.

What it all adds up to is that Congress is not adequately organized to handle its present problems, to say nothing of the increasing workload in the next 25 years.

What's needed is said to be a change in structure of Congress as well as a change in its members' attitudes.

On the latter, "We don't have time to think out the answers to our problems," says one member. "We're lucky if we can just identify them. I barely know what's going on."

On the structural reorganization of Congress, 50 per cent of the delays are now said to be caused by jurisdictional disputes between committees.

The increasing work load of Congress during the next quarter century is bound to make present organization and procedure seem even more inadequate. Reform has to be effected for the future, it is felt, even if not for the present.

Population growth means a greater concentration of people in cities. Constantly improving farm technology means that more food will be produced by far fewer people. Automation makes achievement of full employment more difficult.

Congress has to gear up to deal with more complex human problems as well as political, economic or international affairs. And it has to gear up to make decisions faster.

Try This At Christmas

By Polly Cramer
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — We are invited to three weddings, so I have been busy wrapping wedding gifts. When wrapping a gift that is in a box with a lid that comes down over the sides, I just cover the lid with pretty paper, put it on the box and tie ribbon around the entire box with a bow on top. It makes a most attractive package. I always hated to see so much fancy paper torn off and thrown away. — ELSIE.

GIRLS — Often I have covered a shower gift box with expensive white rayon satin. A bit of paste holds it on tightly. Wide white satin ribbon is tied around the satin box and a "wedding bouquet" of white artificial flowers is placed on top so it looks quite apropos of the occasion. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — When painting chair legs, put each leg in a jar cover placed upside down on the floor. This allows room for the brush to get around the legs and the cover catches the paint drippings.

Coffee grounds make a good sweeping compound for basement floors.

Leftover bread slices are easy to cube or grate for stuffings, meat loaves, etc. if they are first frozen. Use directly from the freezer. — MRS. O. K.

GIRLS — This last hint works so well I am going to definitely use it for stuffing my Christmas turkey. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — Since your column is my favorite, I am sending you my favorite hint. To keep slippers from riding up and down, I sew strips of twill tape on to the inside seams (wrong side) next to the furniture legs. Strips should be long enough to cross around the leg and tie in a secure bow. Saves time and fingernails and keeps the chair or sofa neater looking. — MRS. B. J. M.

GIRLS — When slippers do not have flounces around the bottom, I sew a piece of material, about five inches deep, on each of the four sides between the legs. These bands are pulled toward the center of the underneath part of the chair and pinned securely to the bottom so the slipcover never rides up. — POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — A couple of years ago, just after Christmas, I decided on a gift to give my aunt the next Christmas. She has three children, so from New Year's Day until a few weeks before Christmas I made a point of taking as many snapshots as possible of her children. I put these in a small album that holds 20 pictures. She was so thrilled with this photographic record of her children for one year that I now do it for several friends and relatives. It brings great pleasure for a small expense. — M. W.

DEAR POLLY — I use a stick with cotton tips on each end to polish around the edges of my little girl's saddle shoes. One end is for black and the other for white so there is no wiping off to be done. — MRS. D. W.

DEAR POLLY — I loosely wad a clean facial tissue and put it in the "dribble pocket" of a plastic bib to save spills from accumulating and overflowing when baby is learning to drink from a cup. The tissue also holds the pocket open so that the milk runs into it instead of down baby's front. — MRS. F. R. P.

Missouri

Question: When a child born to an unwed mother is adopted, may the adoptive parents obtain a birth certificate showing the adoptive name of the child and their names as his parents?

Facts: William Smith, a year-old child, was born to an unmarried mother in Missouri. Richard and Edna Jones, a childless couple, adopted William in an adoption proceeding in this state. The Joneses then wanted to obtain a birth certificate which would show their adopted child as their own child with his new name of Robert Jones as decreed to him in the adoption proceedings. May they obtain such a birth certificate?

Answer: The answer is yes. The State Registrar in the Office of the Director of the Division of Health in Jefferson City, on receipt of the certificate of decree of adoption, will prepare a supplemental birth certificate in the name of Robert Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Jones may obtain this birth certificate. It will give their names as Robert's parents, and will not give any information regarding Robert's natural mother nor the fact of the adoption.

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL: Milk and Music.—A Chicago radio station, in the interests of scientific research and a little free advertising, recently put two Holstein cows in a department store window with earphones clamped to their heads. The cows had identical ancestry and milk production records. They were milked by the same hands and lived parallel lives except for one thing — one cow heard soft music through her earphones and the other was subjected to rock and roll.

As anyone with a teen-age music lover within earshot could have predicted, the soft music cow outproduced the other. But one question remains unsolved:

How much more milk would both cows have produced if they'd stayed in a nice quiet barn, instead of having to brood about working for the kind of humans who would put a cow with earphones in a department store window?

Vitamins to Books

It seems that, just like people, books need their vitamins to be healthy, especially if they're old.

So reports the Library Journal, telling of the work of Dom Mario Pinzuti of the Vatican's Institute for the Scientific Restoration of Books.

Dr. Teller Surprises Dr. Oppenheimer

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, the atomic scientist, got the surprise of his life during a recent White House reception when he saw his old foe and critic, Dr. Edward Teller, waiting to greet him.

It was Teller who helped drive Oppenheimer out of the atomic energy program on the grounds that he was a security risk. He was the most damaging witness at the long and dramatic hearings conducted under Admiral Lewis Strauss, then AEC chairman, regarding the loyalty of the man who built the first atomic bomb.

That testimony and the findings of the commission began a long ordeal for Oppenheimer. He retired to Princeton, remained in obscurity, was considered by many dishonored and disgraced.

But shortly before President Kennedy was killed, he moved to restore Oppenheimer's good name. As a senator, Kennedy had been opposed to the witch hunt. He felt that the nation needed a gesture to help end the decade of hate and suspicion. So, as one of his last acts, he nominated Oppenheimer for the highest nuclear honor in the nation, the Enrico Fermi medal.

One of President Johnson's first acts was to present the award to Oppenheimer.

Scientist friends of Oppenheimer at the White House reception never dreamed Dr. Teller would be present. He was automatically invited as a previous Fermi award winner and stood for a time at the end of the refreshment table munching hors d'oeuvres. Suddenly, seeing the news photographers unlimbering their cameras, he bolted toward Oppenheimer, elbowing his way through a knot of well-wishers. Teller grabbed Oppenheimer's hand just as the flash bulbs started popping.

The startled Oppenheimer stared in disbelief as the man who had helped drive him from government offered his congratulations.

Pay Raise for Congress

It's beginning to look as if Congress's most notable accomplishment this year may be to raise the salaries of its members from $22,500 to $35,000 per year.

This would seem a poor time for them to vote themselves a pay raise, as they wind up the lengthiest but least productive session in history. Furthermore, their present pay may seem ample to most voters. However, it is less than most congressmen could command in law, industry, or commerce, and their responsibilities are greater than men who are paid far more.

This column must report, in all fairness, that congressmen have special expenses, must maintain residences both at home and in Washington, shuttling constantly back and forth. Only three round-trips a year are paid for by the taxpayers.

Members of Congress are also expected to donate generously to charities, to entertain frequently, and face the ever pressing need of financing the next campaign.

The truth is that an honest congressman has a tough time meeting his bills on $22,500 a year. Since most are honest, they are forced by their low pay to seek outside revenue from law firms and business investments.

Not all are as spartan as Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., who has set a $2.50 limit on gifts he will accept or allow his staff to accept.

On his few official trips abroad, he insists on traveling tourist class. He caused a flap in the State Department, for instance, by demanding to stay in a modest hotel in Munich. The diplomats wanted him to stay in the best hotel, as befitting his standing. But Douglas got his way.

Few are as frugal as Sen. Clifford Case, R-N.J., who rides to work on a bus, eats in the cut-rate Senate cafeteria, and scrims in order to make ends meet. He is forced to draw on his savings, accumulated from his former law practice, in order to stay in the Senate.

Sen. Spessard Holland, D-Fla., was forced to sell his interests in several citrus groves, as he needed money to pay his Washington expenses. He sold the last of them three years ago.

Others resort to moonlighting (usually lecturing or writing) in order to keep the wolf away from the door.

Certainly, members of Congress are entitled to a pay raise, but they should earn it first by finishing their congressional chores.

GIFTS OF THE MAGI

Mrs. Oswald Was Admirer Of Kennedy

DALLAS (AP) — The housewife who sheltered the family of President Kennedy's accused assassin says Marina Oswald was a great admirer of the nation's chief executive.

Mrs. Ruth Paine, who took Russian-born Mrs. Lee Harvey Oswald into her home at near-by Irving for two months, told about the Oswalds' family life in an interview Tuesday with newsman Wes Wise of Dallas station KRLD-TV.

On the day of the assassination, Mrs. Paine said she arose before Mrs. Oswald and her children, turned on the television set so they could watch Kennedy's arrival, and took her own young daughter to the dentist.

"I left the television on for Marina," Mrs. Paine said, "because I knew of the great admiration she had for the President."

Before the day ended Oswald was arrested and charged with killing both Kennedy and Police Officer J.D. Tippit. About 48 hours later a nationwide television audience and scores of newsmen saw Jack Ruby, Dallas strip-tease joint owner, kill Oswald.

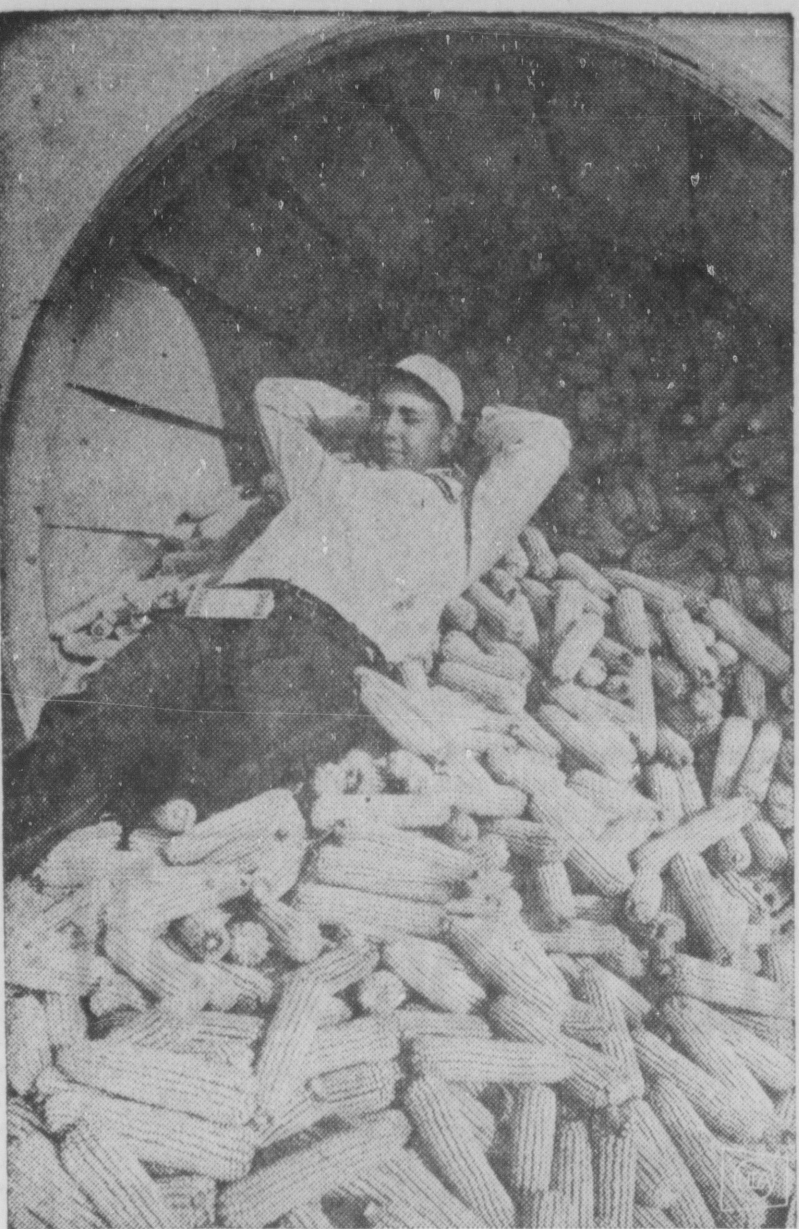

Mrs. Paine said Mrs. Oswald came to live with her Sept. 24 because Oswald was out of work and worried about their new baby, expected in about a month.

Mrs. Oswald now is held in protective custody of the U. S.

Secret Service at an undisclosed spot.

Mrs. Paine said when they learned a hidden rifleman had killed the President, Mrs. Oswald was almost overcome with grief and remarked how "awful it will be for Mrs. Kennedy to raise those two little children without a father."

Mrs. Paine said she and her husband met the Oswalds at a party before the Oswalds left Dallas to live briefly in New Orleans.

Visits Bolivia Prisoners

ORURO, Bolivia (AP) — The four Americans and 11 other hostages held by rebellious Bolivian tin miners are crammed each night into one room 18 by 12 feet and sleep on the floor without mattresses.

They all appear in good health but seem understandably concerned and annoyed at their unexpected imprisonment, now in its fifth day.

The hostages were interviewed by newsmen at nearby Catavi Tuesday for the first time since they were taken prisoner Friday in retaliation for the government's arrest of two Communist labor leaders, Irineo Pimentel and Federico Escobar.

Under a close guard, the new men were led into two small rooms at the headquarters of the mine union and met the hostages, who also include a West German, a Dutchman and nine Bolivian technicians.

Thomas Martin, 27, of New York, a U.S. Information Service officer, said he and the other Americans were arrested after a dinner Friday night at the home of Cornelius Bloot, a Dutch mine manager.

"We just want to be set free," said Michael A. Kristula of Cadillac, Michigan, information

West Coast Lawyer To Defend Ruby

DALLAS (AP)—A Californian considered one of the nation's foremost trial lawyers will head the defense staff at the murder trial of Jack Ruby, who killed the accused assassin of President Kennedy.

The lawyer, Melvin Belli (pronounced bell-eye) of Los Angeles and San Francisco, said Tuesday night he was undertaking Ruby's defense "and I'm going to lead on it."

Belli, author of 28 law books and a past president of the American Academy of Trial Lawyers, said Ruby, 52, will plead innocent by reason of insanity.

Asked if he believed Ruby could receive a fair trial in Dallas, Belli said: "There is no assumption that he cannot." He added there was no plan at present to ask a change of venue.

Ruby's trial for murder in the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, the accused assassin, is set for Feb. 3 before Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown of Dallas.

Brown said three national networks or their affiliates have asked to televise the trial.

"I've done a lot of thinking and praying about it," he said, "but I don't know about it yet."

The 55-year-old jurist, a bulky man with graying, wavy brown hair, predicted he will be criticized widely regardless of what he decides about television.

Ruby shot Oswald before a nationwide TV audience Nov. 24 as he was being transferred from Dallas' City Hall to the county jail.

Belli said he did not believe Ruby "was just a publicity seeker" and he was convinced Ruby had no association with Oswald or any conspiracy. After talking to Ruby in his cell, Belli said: "He's sincere, disturbed and troubled."

In the lineup for Ruby's defense with Belli are Sam S. Brody, 37, a Los Angeles legal associate; Joe Tonnahill, 55, Jasper, Tex., another associate; and Dallas lawyers Tom Howard and Jim Martin.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade of Dallas has said he will ask the death penalty for Ruby.

Atlantic Alliance Unification Seen By French President

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The North Atlantic Treaty Alliance is solid and unified against any external threat and President Charles de Gaulle of France is a steady ally when issues of that type are involved, says Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

He added that while there are differences within Western Europe, it is possible now to say that "for the first time in history a world war will not originate in a dispute within Western Europe."

The secretary spoke at a convention of the Farmer's Union Grain Terminal Association Tuesday night and held a news conference prior to the dinner. Rusk said he hopes Congress
